

Hiking: Panorama Trail

View the Howe Sound, Stawamus Chief and all of Squamish from the Sky. This 1.6km long loop trail takes you through coastal forest, Alaskan Blueberry bushes and granite outcroppings. Viewpoints with handcrafted cedar benches dot the trail for rests with a view. The Panorama trail has an easy elevation grade of approximately 8-10% allowing people of all ages and fitness levels to complete it in around an hour.

The Panorama Trail is open year-round. During the winter months, you will need snowshoes to access the trail.

How to get there:

Drive south from the Adventure Centre on Highway 99. Park at the Sea to Sky Gondola Base Camp and ride the gondola to the Summit Lodge. The trail begins here.

Route:

From the Summit Lodge follow signs to the Panorama Trail. The loop can be completed in either direction. Halfway through the trail is the Chief Overlook Platform. The cantilevered deck juts out over a sheer drop and offers majestic views of the ocean and surrounding mountains.
