

SQUAMISH Adventure COLLECTION

Choose your next Squamish
adventure

#exploresquamish
exploresquamish.com

Adventure Starts Here

There's no single way to experience Squamish.

Whether you're seeking adventure, connection, learning, relaxation, or time with family and friends, this collection showcases some of the best things to see and do in Squamish.

Discover something new, revisit a favourite, or find a reason to stay a little longer.

TOURISM
SQUAMISH
HARDWIRED for ADVENTURE

Find your next adventure

Airhouse

Rain or shine, Airhouse is where Squamish goes to move. Trampolines, foam pits, ramps, parkour features, and skate spaces make this part freestyle training ground, part high-energy playground, for first-timers, kids and seasoned athletes alike.

Plan For: 1–3 hours

airhouse.ca

☐ ON MY LIST

Altus Mountain Guides

From rock climbing and trail running to ski touring, alpine traverses, and summit objectives, Altus Mountain Guides connects guests with guided mountain experiences in Squamish and surrounding Coast Mountains, led by ACMG-certified professional guides.

Plan For: Half-day to full-day adventures

altusmountainguides.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Black Tusk Helicopter Inc.

Lift off from Squamish Airport with Black Tusk Helicopters Inc. for aerial tours, heli-hiking, heli-biking, and backcountry access in the surrounding Coast Mountains. From sightseeing flights to custom heli-drops, this is Squamish from a different perspective.

Plan For: 30 min to full-day adventures

blacktuskhelicopter.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Blazing Saddles Adventures

Explore Squamish by high-end e-bike on a guided eco-tour designed for all riding abilities. Ride easy scenic trails from forest to river to ocean while local guides share stories about the ecosystems, wildlife, and landscapes that shape this place.

Plan For: 2-4 hours

blazingsaddlesadventures.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Britannia Mine Museum

Once one of the largest copper mines in the world, Britannia Mine Museum brings BC's industrial past roaring back to life with underground mining adventures, hands-on exhibits, and the explosive BOOM! experience.

Plan For: 2–4 hours

britanniaminemuseum.ca

☐ ON MY LIST

Canada West Mountain School

One of Canada's most respected mountaineering schools, Canada West Mountain School offers guided adventures and instruction in climbing, ski touring, backpacking, and wilderness safety, all set in the heart of the Sea to Sky.

Plan For: Half-day to multi-day courses and adventures

themountainschool.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Canadian Coastal Sailing

Set sail with guided experiences through Átl'ka7tsem / Howe Sound, BC's southernmost fjord, with granite walls, waterfalls, coastal winds, and unforgettable sunset sailing.

Plan For: 3+ hour sailing experiences
canadiancoastal.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Canadian Outback Rafting

From whitewater thrills to family floats, Canadian Outback Rafting shares Squamish's glacial rivers, old-growth forests, and mountain views on guided trips for all ages.

Plan For: Half-day to full-day adventures
canadianoutbackrafting.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Chromer Sport Fishing

Squamish's rivers are rich with salmon, trout, and steelhead, and Chromer's guides know where to find them. Wade or drift by raft through spectacular BC scenery.

Plan For: Half-day to full-day fishing trips chromersportfishing.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Furry Creek Golf

Play 18 holes surrounded by panoramic Howe Sound views, coastal mountains, and beautifully landscaped fairways, Furry Creek is one of BC's most scenic rounds.

Plan For: 3–5 hours

furrycreekgolf.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Dialed In Cycling

Better rides start here. Steps from the trails, Dialed In Cycling helps all ages build confidence, sharpen skills, and explore Squamish trails with coaching and rentals.

Plan For: 2–4 hours

dialedincycling.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Deep Coast Charters

Cast a line or cruise Átl'ka7tsem / Howe Sound on private fishing charters and sightseeing tours with wildlife, quiet coves, and big mountain views.

Plan For: Half-day & full-day adventures

deepcoastcharters.ca

☐ ON MY LIST

Ground Up Climbing

Chalk up with indoor bouldering and climbing. Whether you're climbing for the first time or building skills for Squamish granite, this is a welcoming place to start.

Plan For: 1-3 hours

climbgroundup.com

☐ ON MY LIST

InFlow Adventure Co.

InFlow Adventure Co. offers small-group sailing, wing foil lessons, guided water experiences, and year-round floating sauna sessions focused on rest, and connection.

Plan For: 2-4 hours

inflowadventure.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Mountain Skills Academy & Adventures

Clip into a Via Ferrata, climb granite, explore alpine terrain, or build skills for bigger adventures with certified Squamish mountain guides.

Plan For: Half-day to full-day adventures

mountainskillsacademy.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Railway Museum of BC

Before the Sea to Sky Highway, there was the railway. The Railway Museum of BC brings the province's rail history to life with operating locomotives, vintage railcars, mini-train rides, and interactive exhibits. Part museum, part time machine.

Plan For: 1–3 hours

wcra.org

☐ ON MY LIST

RideHub

Grab a coffee, get the trail intel, and roll into Squamish's trails with coaching, guided rides, premium bike rentals, and full-service bike support. RideHub helps riders get ready, ride well, and refuel after.

Plan For: 2–6 hours

ridehub.ca

☐ ON MY LIST

Rise Mountain Adventures

From alpine hikes and trail runs to backpacking and snowshoe adventures, Rise Mountain Adventures helps people of all ages and abilities connect more deeply with the outdoors through fun, supportive, and inspiring guided experiences.

Plan For: Half-day to full-day adventures
risemountainadventures.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Sea to Sky Air

See Squamish from above with scenic flights and floatplane tours showcasing glaciers, fjords, alpine lakes, rivers, and towering West Coast mountains. Sea to Sky Air makes the region's wild landscapes accessible to everyone, no hiking boots or backcountry skills required.

Plan For: 30 min–2 hours
seatoskyair.ca

☐ ON MY LIST

Sea to Sky Gondola

Ten minutes from sea level to sweeping views above Howe Sound. Ride the gondola to the summit for the Sky Pilot Suspension Bridge, panoramic viewpoints, mountaintop dining, easy walking loops, and hiking trails that go well beyond the viewpoint.

Plan For: 2–4 hours

seatoskygondola.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Squamish Canoe Rental

Flat water, ocean inlets, gentle river currents, Squamish has no shortage of ways to explore from the water. Squamish Canoe Rental makes it easy with flexible canoe, paddleboard, and raft rentals, plus transport options so the logistics take care of themselves.

Plan For: Half-day to full-day adventures

squamishcanoerental.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Squamish Canyon

Rainforest, waterfalls, canyon walls, and a forest lounge waiting at the end of it. Follow elevated walkways through 1.5 km of stunning terrain, with viewpoints, interpretive storytelling, nature-inspired play, and places to pause along the way.

Plan For: 1–3 hours

squamishcanyon.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Squamish Climbing Academy

There's no better classroom than Squamish granite. From first climbs to bigger routes, professional guides help youth, families, adults, and small groups build skills, confidence, and connection to the crag through guided adventures, camps, and climbing instruction.

Plan For: Half-day to multi-day programs

squamishclimbingacademy.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Squamish River Ranch

Ride deep into the Upper Squamish Valley through old-growth forest, riverside trails, and towering mountain scenery on guided horseback adventures designed to help guests slow down, unplug, and reconnect with nature.

Plan For: 2–4 hours

squamishriverranch.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Squamish Valley Golf

This walkable eighteen-hole course combines mountain scenery, tree-lined fairways, and a laid-back atmosphere just minutes from downtown Squamish. Stick around after your round for post-game favourites at the clubhouse patio.

Plan For: 3–5 hours

squamishvalleygolf.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Squamish Watersports

Get out on Howe Sound, where sailing, calm paddles, guided tours, and wind-powered adventures all start from the water. From kiteboarding and wakeboarding to paddleboarding, kayaking, canoeing, and boat tours, there are plenty of ways to play.

Plan For: 2–5 hours

squamishwatersports.com

☐ ON MY LIST

The Ninja Gym

Run, jump, climb, and test your limits across 7,000 square feet of obstacle courses, parkour features, climbing challenges, and airbags, with drop-ins, classes, camps, parties, and private bookings for kids and adults.

Plan For: 1–3 hours

theninjagym.ca

☐ ON MY LIST

TRUE WILD Coastal

Explore Átl'ka7tsem / Howe Sound through small-group marine expeditions shaped by the wildlife, weather, and rhythm of the coast. TRUE WILD Coastal offers immersive boating experiences grounded in stewardship, patience, and deep respect for the waters of the West Coast.

Plan For: Half-day to full-day expeditions truewildcoastal.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Valley Fishing Guides

Some fishing trips start at the riverbank. Others start with a helicopter. With 25+ years of guiding experience, guests can explore remote waters for salmon, trout, char, and steelhead on trips for every level, all with big scenery built in.

Plan For: Half-day to multi-day trips
valleyfishing.com

☐ ON MY LIST

West Coast Canyoning

Experience the wild side of the Sea to Sky through guided canyoning adventures featuring waterfall rappels, cliff jumps, zip lines, and rainforest canyons surrounded by towering rock walls and lush forest.

Plan For: Half-day adventures
westcoastcanyoning.com

☐ ON MY LIST

Whistler Olympic Park

Follow in the tracks of Olympians at this former 2010 Winter Games venue surrounded by spectacular Callaghan Valley scenery. The park offers year-round adventure including hiking, biking, camping, cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, biathlon, a First Nations interpretive walk and sightseeing experiences for all abilities.

Plan For: Half-day to full-day adventures
whistlerolympicpark.com

☐ ON MY LIST

